Life Group Covenant

- Group Participation – To give priority to the group meetings, group members, and ministry activities we choose to do together
- Safe Environment – To help create a safe environment for spiritual progression by making Life Group a place where people can be heard, confess sin, and feel loved and accepted without being judged
- Confidentiality – To keep anything that is shared strictly confidential and within the group
- Leadable and Teachable – To give permission for fellow group members to help each other progress toward Christ-likeness
- Shared Ownership – To make a contribution in sharing the responsibility of the Life Group
- Rotating Facilitators – To encourage and support the rotation of group facilitation
- Bible Study and Relationship Building – To keep these two elements the prominent features of time together in group in relative balance
- Prayer – To practice the spiritual discipline of prayer, interceding for fellow life group members both during and outside of Life Group meetings
- Preparation – To endeavor toward faithfully preparing for Life Group Bible study lessons and discussions
- Childcare-
